Although the year started out with a minimum of excitment, we all knew there were better times ahead. The rules were read, friendships were established and all-around routine began to set in.

As the months passed, each class did their own thing. The sophomores were still trying to get used to the outrageous way of life in high school. The juniors finally settled down and realized they still had another year to go until they graduated. The seniors just wandered from class to class hoping June would come very soon.

Each of us set our own goals and tried our best to reach them. Some of us accomplished those goals and some of us didn't, but we all had our share of fun and experienced New Horizons

Jeanne Caesar

As one of the most active girls in our school, it's hard to see where Jeanne Caesar can find time for something besides Vaca High and its surroundings.

Jeanne has been a cheerleader for four years. She has also belonged to numerous clubs such as C.S.F., National Honor Society, Block "V", and German Club, to name a few. She spent a week at a science program at Marin National Headlands and a science program at Humboldt State. At Humboldt she studied Oceanography, Marine Biology, and Mathematics.

Jeanne has been picked as a "Student of the Month" by the Rotary Club, won the outstanding achievement award and is business manager for the Ulatis. While all this was going on she ran track at the Junior Olympics in Berkeley.

Jeanne plans to attend Stanford or Mills College for Women. Be assured that she will be as active there as she was here.

Senior Spotlight
Earl Baker

Of all the students at Vaca High this year, Earl Baker proved to be the model student. As student body president, Earl took on many activities and responsibilities.

Earl's academic position was one of the highest in the school. He carried a 3.92 G.P.A., was ranked seventh in the class, and recieved both the American Legion award and the Rotary Club student of the month award.

In his spare time he participated in student speaker contests at the Lions Club.

His academics never seemed to interfere with sports. Earl started as safety for the Varsity Football team, pole vaulted in track and played basketball for the city recreation department.

Planning on attending a major university such as Notre Dame or Stanford, Earl has the respect of his teachers, students and the community.

Sarah Boler

Belonging to almost every club at Vaca High, it's a wonder Sarah Boler can find time for the several community projects she has participated in. She has been president of the French Club and Honor Society, a member of the C.S.F., head of the publicity department for the Drama Club and Vice President of the Science Club.

When she wasn't taking part in any of those clubs, she was helping to start the highly acclaimed "ADOPT A GRANDPARENT" program at Winsor Convalescent Hospital. Sarah recieved the Soroptomist Youth Award 2 years in a row for her work on the Human Services Youth Committee. This is just one of the many things Sarah has done to help our community during her years here at Vacaville High School.

While earning a varsity letter in tennis, Sarah also bounced around in gymnastics, and slammed a few in basketball. She hopes to pursue either a career in political science, international relations, or communications.

Rebecca Ruth

Traveling through Europe and the Orient have been just a few of the exciting things Rebecca Ruth has encountered in her three years at Vacaville High School.

Rebecca has done extensive traveling through such countries as Germany, Switzerland, France and Japan. Among other accomplishments are the recipient of the Soroptomist Award for three consecutive years, being listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students, and she has also studied Dactylogy (sign language) at Solano College.

Iris Delgado

Since the age of seven Iris Delgado has been practicing the art of Karate.

Her main incentive was her mother. Iris's mother decided that they both needed to defend themselves, so they took a karate class. After a couple of years she started to really enjoy it. As her fourth year with karate rolled along, she decided to enter a few tournaments. As time went on Iris started to win matches which later led to tournaments every weekend. In time she was ranked number three in California. By the time she was 14, Iris received her Brown Belt and won a first place in both the Martial Arts Expo and World Tournament.

Now at the age of 16, Iris will shoot for the highest honor of wearing a Black Belt. She hopes to enter the California Karate Championships and win first place. We would like to wish her good luck in her karate and her future.

Tim Clark

Tim Clark's life has been one of personal challenge. Whether in everyday life or in a competitive sport, Tim has invariably tried to come up on top. "If I don't come out on top, I'll try something else," Tim stated.

Active most of his life, Tim has participated in such sports as cross country, track and basketball. Tim remarked. "I enjoy sports even though I'm not that good in certain ones. They give me a chance to compete with other people."

During his two years at Vaca High, Tim has been in clubs such as SCF, Science Club, Student Council, and the National Junior Honor Society. And if that didn't take most of his time, Tim took flying lessons this past summer and received his pilot license on December 5th. In the future, Tim hopes to become a fighter pilot for the Air Force or Navy and then advance to Astrophysics. In any field Tim chooses, you can be assured that he will be flying high.

Sophomore Spotlight
Tina Helmts

The easiest way to describe Tina Helmts is to call her an "All-American Kid." Tina excells in almost everything she does. A 3.5 G.P.A. holder, Tina is the Sophomore Class President. She is a member of the National Junior Honor Society, Student Council and the Soroptomist Club.

Tina has the position of starting forward for the Junior Varsity Basketball team and is active in other sports such as volleyball and softball. Tina wishes to continue in all of these sports throughout high school and college and then possibly coach later.

Tina hopes to be accepted into the University of California at Berkeley and study psychology and computer science. "My main goal in life is to help people, mainly teenagers, through their problems."

Sophomore Spotlight
Michael McCool

Michael McCool can be called a very versatile sophomore at Vacaville High School. Mike not only participates in three different sports but he also carries a 3.5 grade point average. Mike played both offensive and defensive tackle for the J.V. football team. He was also the center on the J.V. basketball team and was active on our golf team.

In his spare time Mike likes to collect coins and shoot baskets. Later in life he will be shooting for a much higher goal. Mike hopes to major in electronics or computer science at Norte Dame or U.C. Berkeley. In any account you can be assured Mike will score his goal.

Lisa Schultz

With a life style not quite paralled by anyone at Vaca High, Lisa Schultz plays the role of a modern student. Her favorite hobby, art, has brought her considerable attention. She has supervised murals being drawn at Willis Jepson Junior High School, and she now enjoys drawing "Pierrots," the craft of drawing French mimes.

Lisa plays basketball, softball, and runs cross country. Her ultra-modern 35 year old father is a drummer in a Bay Area New Wave band. According to Lisa, he "looks just like the Cars' Ric Ocasek."

After graduation Lisa hopes to enroll in a major university such as Berkeley where she plans to study journalism and criminal justice.

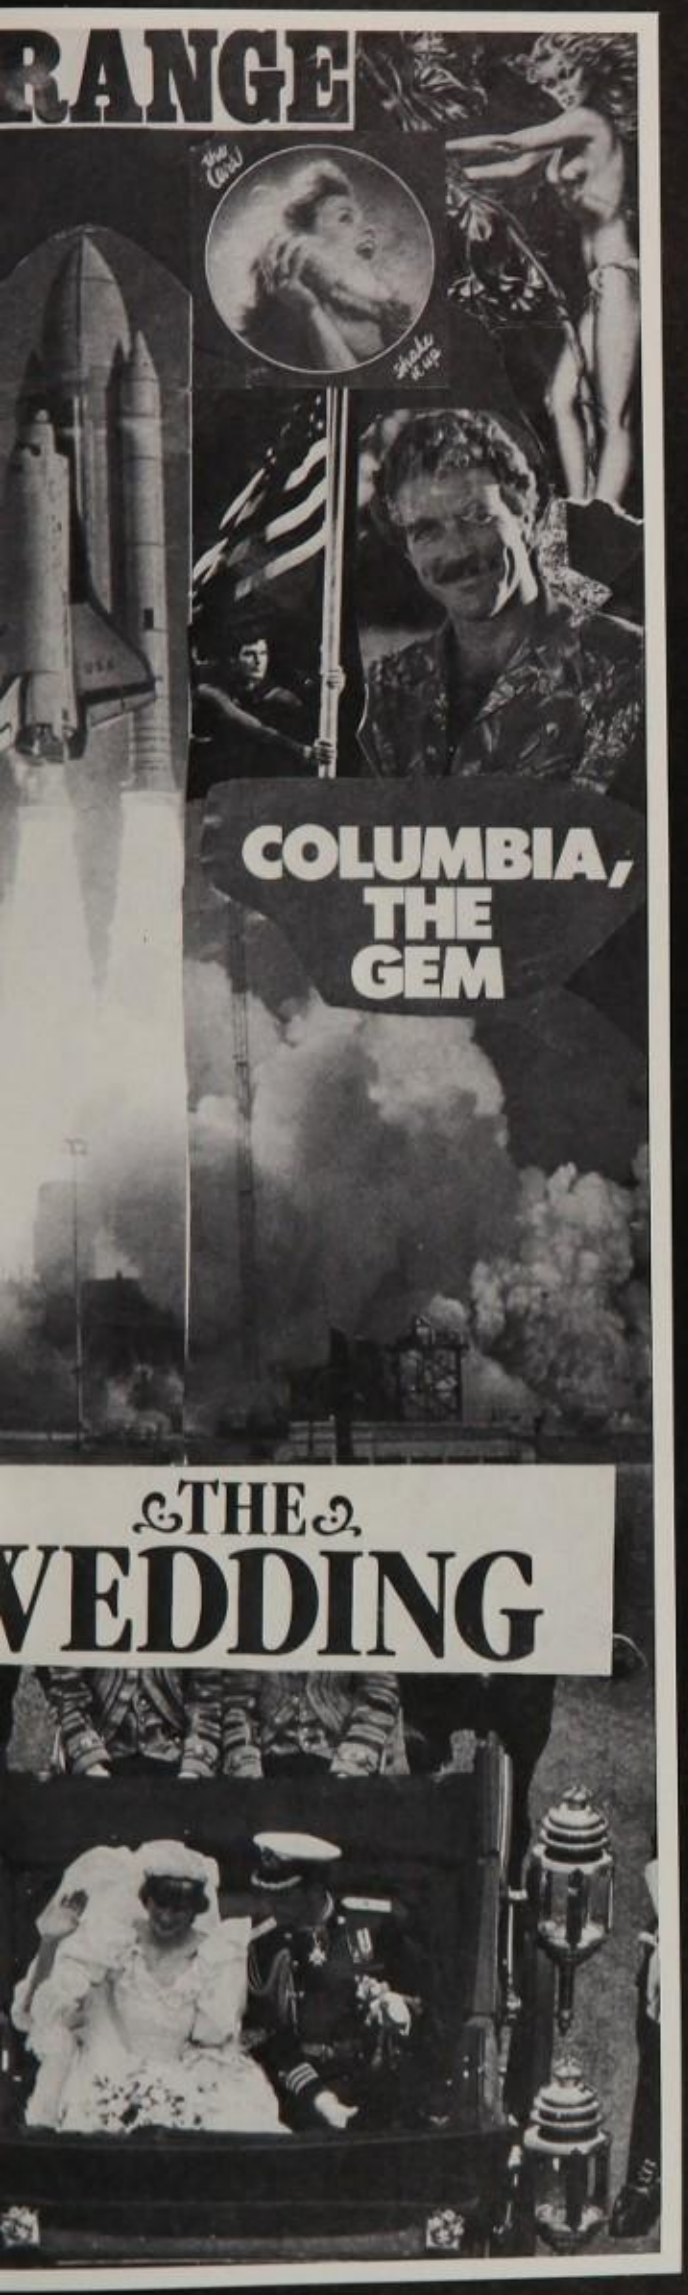
ATLANTA WEEPS FOR ITS CHILDREN

THE YEAR 1981-82



1981 was a year, like many in the past. There were bad times we would try to forget, and good times which we would look back on with much joy and pride. While many diplomatic affairs at home and abroad shattered our lives, Americans stood together tall and proud, knowing that we were free and at peace.

INTERNATIONAL

• It was an American nightmare in instant replay. A deranged maniac named John W. Hinkley, 25, shot President Ronald Reagan, his press secretary, James Brady, and two law enforcement officers. Reagan, 70 years old and only 70 days into his presidency, made it through a serious chest wound with extraordinary bounce and courage. This was not the case for James Brady, who took a shot in the head. It left him severly paralyzed in ways that he will never recover from.

• For Americans, the launch of spaceship Columbia was the greatest event since the moonwalks. The heroism of commander John W. Young and pilot Robert L. Crippen brought the American people together, on their feet and cheering. The Columbia was a new beginning and a reassurance that we were "in space to stay."

• While attending a parade in Cairo, Anwar Sadat was ruthlessly gunned down by a group of men rushing from the back of a military truck. Sadat, mortally wounded, fell in a bloody jumble of overturned chairs and died. The assassination left the Mideast facing a dangerous political void. It also left the world without one of the few leaders whose bold imagination and personal courage seemed to have made a difference in our history.

• Presidents and rock stars might be understandable targets for the insane, but somehow a man of peace became a target. Pope John Paul II was shot by a heartless turkish man, Mehmet Ali Agca. We began to wonder who would be next?

• Evoking a fairy tale of present pomp and past glory, before a world parched for romance, Crown Prince Charles of England married a stunning kindergarten teacher, Lady Diana Spencer in the grandest wedding of the century. Three months later the news arrived, Diana, Princess of Whales was pregnant and a new generation of the Royal Family was about to begin.

• Agent Orange, the toxic herbicide that was widely used in Vietnam, received considerable attention in 1981. Hundreds upon hundreds of veterans complained of serious symptions such as birth defects in their children and cancer in themselves. With all these complications the U.S. government took no responsibility and offered no compensation for the men who served our country in one of America's most devastating wars.

• 1981 was a year of fear and hatred for the people of Atlanta, Georgia. An estanged psychotic had kidnapped and murdered 28 black children and the parents of Atlanta were frantic. Police were stumped and the mayor had no answers, so the F.B.I. were called in the they too could find no solutions. To show their support in the urgent need to catch this person, American's wore green ribbons, just as they had worn yellow ones for the hostages in Iran. Finally a suspect was brought in, Wayne Williams, a black photographer in the Atlanta area. Because of the publicity of the case officials decided that having the trial outside the area would do no good, so in January of 1982 in Atlanta, Georgia, the trial of Wayne Williams began.

• In the summer months of 1981, California was hit by a plague of small insects called the Mediterranean Fruit Fly or "Medfly" for short. The infestation quarantined most of California's immense fruit crop and after months of spraying Malathion we were no closer to getting rid of them. A good cold winter came and went and scientists did not know if it had killed the flies' larva, so the future of California's fruit crop was up in the air.

SPORTS

• After losing the first two games to the New York Yankees, the Los Angeles Dodgers came from behind to win three games in a row and capture the World Series pennant, in a vivid display of teamwork, pride and poise.

• Los Angeles Dodger pitching sensation, Fernando Valenzuela came out of nowhere in 1981 to be voted "Rookie of the Year" by many sportswriters and magazines. The 20 year old rookie set pace for many, as the major league's shutout and strikeout leader. Valenzuela also compiled a 13-7 record and a 2.48 e.r.a., and accounted for nearly 9,000 extra ticket sales.

• After beating Ayub Kalule in a match earlier in 1981, Sports Illustrated's "Sportsman of the Year," Sugar Ray Leonard punched out Tommy Hearns, a minute, forty-five seconds, into the fourteenth round of their fight to become the undisputed Welterweight Champion of the World.

• After what seemed to be a never ending struggle, John McEnroe finally defeated Wimbleton ace Bjorn Borg. Pouting and fussing every step of the way, McEnroe sparked much controversy because of his needless child-like behavior. He was threatened with a $14,750 fine and suspension by Wimbleton officials if he did not straighten up. He finally did and proved to himself, Borg, and the world that Bjorn Borg could be beaten at Wimbleton.

• In typical "Cinderella" style, the San Francisco 49ers struck gold, when they stunned the entire football world with their first Super Bowl berth. They won Super Bowl XVI, 26 - 21.

• Raiders of the Lost Ark was a million Saturday matinee serials with breathtaking escapades, and edge-of-the-seat adventures all wrapped into one spectacular package. In the adventures of Indiana Jones (played by Harrison Ford), a daredevil archaeologist, tires to beat the Nazis to the lost "Ark of the Covenant." With feisty, freckled, whiskey-belted, Marian (played by Karen Allen) at his side, the team was unbeatable. Raiders was definitely 1981's best movie.

• General Hospital, became daytime television's hottest soap opera in 1981. With guest stars like Elizabeth Taylor, the show scooped up more ratings than any other soap in history. General Hospital followed such personalities as Rick Springfield, rock star turned actor, who played Dr. Noah Drake. The show mainly focused on two young lovers, Luke and Laura (played by Tony Geary and Genie Francis) to their long awaited wedding.

• The ongoing adventures of Superman had one more episode in 1981 with Superman II. Once again played by Christopher Reeve, we found our superbuddy defending the world against three escapees from the "Phantom Zone" who with identical powers as Superman, try to take over the Earth. Changing instantly from Clark Kent to Superman, the Earth is saved from evil.

• Beautiful and critically acclaimed actress, Natalie Wood tragically drowned November 29, 1981. Miss Wood, married to actor Robert Wagner, was a fine actress and appeared in 52 films during her career, that began when she was only 15. Natalie Wood's death was a tragedy that saddened the nation.

• In an alternative to bulky portable stereos, Walkmans were introduced. A lightweight cassette player that could play as clear and as loud as any home stereo, these new musical innovations were very popular. Many different forms of Walkmans were brought out by several different companies who offered many needless accessories. The real credit of the invention was to go to the Sony Corporation, the original founders of the Walkman.

• Christie Brinkley, whose pretty face showed up one a year on Sports Illustrated's annual swimsuit issue, made it big in 1981. Men across the country waited patiently for the 1981 issue to hit the stands, so they could capture themselves a copy, to look at their favorite sex-symbol. Well they were disappointed, for Christie had moved up to bigger and better things. She was Life Magazines cover-girl for their February 1982 issue and she had also picked up the Cover Girl commercials. Ms. Brinkley had fast become America's favorite sex-symbol.

• Former unknown actor-model Tom Selleck hit it big in 1981 with his television detective series, Magnum P.I. Magnum followed the Rockford Files format of mixing top-notch adventure with witty comedy, which made the show enjoyable for everyone.

• Sixteen year old Brooke Shields advanced one more step on the ladder of fame this year, starring in Endless Love with unknown Martin Hewitt. Shields who was called "biggest conglomerate in the world" by Life magazine, graced the cover of almost every magazine imaginable, and this year was just a start for her.

• In 1981 over 6.7 million Rubik's Cubes were sold at prices ranging from $5 to $15. The achievement of 37 year old Erno Rubik, a junior professor of architecture in Hungary, the cube twisted and boggled everyones minds. Not until the How to Solve the Rubik's Cube book came out did many people solve the puzzle. Now the solution is in everyone's hands. hands.

• The Atari home video market hit it's peak in 1981 with sales rocketing into the millions. Children across the country hoped for a chance to own their own Atari system. Children and grown-ups alike enjoyed such games as Space Invaders, Asteroids and Pac-man. These games which normally cost a quarter a crack in arcades, could be purchased at virtually unbelievable prices. Parents soon learned that the Atari system was also beneficial to their children's learning. Since scientists suggested that hand-eye coordination could be improved from such games, parents were more inclined to buy these systems for their children and themselves.

• "The Greatest Rock and Roll Band in the World" played for the United States once again, for the first time in three years. Led by singer Mick Jagger the Rolling Stones performed a multi-city extravaganza, which included two dates at San Francisco's Candlestick Park. Many critics called it the band's finest tour ever, but many also rumored it would be their last. In any case the performances, highlighted by fireworks, lavish stages and millions of balloons, went down in the books as "Rock and Roll at it's finest."

• With an Oscar in 1980 for his role in Ordinary People and two Golden Globe nominations for his television performance in A Long Way Home, what could 21 year old Timothy Hutton ask for? Well he should have asked for an Oscar nomination for his cadet portrayal in Taps. The son of late Ellery Queen star Jim Hutton, Tim has a very bright future ahead of him and will surely become the acting standard in up and coming years.

PUNK 'N PREPPY SHARED THE SCENE

Styles of the year went to extremes. Way out was punk, with its symbols of anguish and anger; way in was preppy, with its old English boarding school look. Boys, with names like Spike, wore black leather, plenty of metal hardware and curled their lips. Girls named Muffy wore lots of natural fibers and their mothers' pearls. Other signs of the times follow.

BULLDOGS CAN-DO!

Head Coach Tom Zunino looked back upon the tough schedule his team faced in 1981 and revealed that he was satisfied and pleased with Vacaville's winning season. The veteran coach of the Vacaville High School Varsity Football team felt that his team had an excellent and enjoyable year with a respectable 5-4-1 record. "The other teams were just simply better than us," Zunino said. "We played good football to the end of the season and came from behind four times to win."

The Bulldogs problem was lack of consistancy. They were never able to maintain a winning streak. They began the season on a positive note 14-7, only to be stunned in their next game by nationally ranked Rancho Cordova. Vacaville continued its unsteady pattern the rest of the season with close wins over Woodland and Armijo. A homecoming kill over Alameda 48-14 was followed by a victory over long time rivals, Fairfield, on a muddy field.

Zunino noted that two of his gridders, Dave Weber and Brian Morgan, made the Monticello Empire League's first team this season. Brian Powell, Wayne Rush, John Jacobs and Dwyane Collins received the honor of being named to play on the leagues second team. Bulldogs Can-Do once again!

Head Coach Tom Zunino

The Coaching Staff of the Vacaville High School Varsity Bulldogs is a very fine one. It consists of five men who love athletics and especially the sport of football. Mr. Tom Zunino is the veteran of the group followed by Mr. Rudy Montalvo and Mr. Fred Jones. Two new aquisitions to the staff this year are Mr. Larry Baker, who teaches at Willis Jepson and Mr. Ed Santopadre. These men are an asset to Vaca High. We appreciate their extra effort in producing a great football team.

1981 SOCCER
VARSITY TAKES M.E.L. CROWN

The 1981 Vacaville High School Soccer team had the best season in its short history. Coach Chuck Korman couldn't be prouder of his team.

Of the regular fifteen game season, the Bulldogs lost only twice (Armijo 0-2 and highly ranked Dixon 2-4). This gave Vacaville an overall 13-2 record, good enough to make the playoffs. In their first playoff game Korman's team came from behind 0-3 to beat Del Campo 6-4 in a fine display of organization and talent.

In the second post-season playoff game the Bulldogs lost in a thrilling sudden death overtime game against Christian Brothers. This put their final record at 14-3. "The season was better than we expected, but I regret it didn't go better," Korman stated.

All-league honors went to Conrad Vilcek, Perry Lopez, Robert Gordon and Charlie Martinelli, who also received the Most Valuable Player award. Goalies Mark Olin and Tommy Jensen both received honorable mentions.

The Vacaville High School Soccer team deserves special recognition for coming so far in such little time. Coach Chuck Korman is the man who brought them where they are today.

CROSS COUNTRY RUNS AWAY WITH M.E.L. TITLES

All three Bulldog Cross Country teams had their best seasons ever. The Varsity Boys Team, the Varsity Girls team, and the Sophomore Boys team all won their respective M.E.L. Championships by wide margins (see Sports Scoreboard, page 128). In dual meets the Varsity Boys went undefeated while the girls and Sophomores lost only one meet apiece. In Subsections both the Bulldog Varsity teams won handly with victories over Cordova, El Camino, and Elk Grove. In Sections the Boys placed a respectable fourth and the Girls fifth over stiff competition. All in all it was about a good a season as one could hope for. GOOD GOING RUNNERS!

Through Season

"I couldn't make a forecast for this season," said Varsity Baseball Coach Mike Boele, "but we were stronger in every aspect of the game, offense and defense! We had a lot of players with a lot of experience, and the players up from Junior Varsity fit in real well. Last year we lost 9 one run games, and we tried to improve on that this year."

Improve on that, they did. The 1982 Bulldog squad beat Armijo (4-2) in their first league game and the first of the year looked equally promising.

With the help of eight returning seniors - Mark Lincoln, Ron Heinz, Paul Bandettini, Dean De Minico, team pitchers Don Heinz and Wade Robinson, along with all-around fielders and hitters, Danny Ballenger and Mike Murasko, Vaca took on the league.

Against tough teams such as Napa, Pinole Vally, and Christian Brothers, the 1982 baseball team was proud of their season. It took hard work and dedication from the team and coaches to make it through their schedule, all which made 1982 a season to remember.

Junior Varsities Go For Their Titles

The first pitch of Vaca High's baseball season signaled the beginning of spring. But instead of getting the warm weather that usually comes along with spring, the opening of the season brought rain, hail and mid-March storms.

Despite the weather, Head Coach Doug Fernandez rescheduled his squad in hope of defending their Monticello Empire League Champion title. This year the junior Bulldogs were led by the fine pitching of Brad Rupert and the fielding and consistent hitting of Kevin Harlow and Eric Facteau. Other starters included Hank Dedrick, Mark Tipton, and Tony Gomes, all who contributed to the team effort. Vintage and Vallejo were the top contenders and the teams to beat.

This years Junior Varsity Softball Team tried very hard to repeat its winning season. Although they got off to a difficult start losing against Armijo, they snapped back to massacre the Napa Indians 15-3. Great contributions were made to the team by Dina Uldall and Lori Friday.

Softball Catches Good Season

The goal of the Varsity Lady Bulldog softball team was to make the post - season tournaments. In order to do so they needed to win over 9 league games. Behind the pitching of Wendy Ward and Lisa Thill, the team hopes were high. After a period of team indifference and beginning the season with only three returning members, the team got off to a decent start. The first league game was lost to an unstopable Armijo team, however, the Bulldogs dusted themselves off and followed the loss with an impressive win over Napa.

Spikers Sprint Into Action

Due to a prolonged rainy season and insufficient funding, the start of the track season looked more like mud wrestling. Combined with running every day, practicing each event, and being mega-nervous before a meet made one wonder why anyone would have wanted to go out for track. The answer was simple - CHALLENGE!

1982 was the year that Mike Larson became the new track coach. Taking over the team was his challenge. For the team members the challenge was often personal - against themselves or against the clock.

Swimming & Diving Under New Management

Practice started out slow this year for the swimming team, but new coach Beth Graham had high hopes for the Bulldog swimmers. Both the girls and the boys began the season with a critical win over Vintage High School. The boys team winning 91 - 84 and the girls slaughtering their opponents 117 - 45. With their next win over Armijo, the team was well on their way to another M.E.L. title.

Former Vacaville High School diver, Erin McBride returned this year to coach the 1982 Diving Team. The team started out strong with excellent efforts by their star, Ron Fricke. Contributing members also include Randy Gault, Steve Fricke, Jim Whitehead, Mike Gonzales, and Brian Moore. The girls on the team were few but successful, Carla Mai, Karen Morris, and Michelle Mana did well.

From the Principal's Desk

From the first Sumerian schools in 2500 B.C. to the public schools of today, education can be viewed as the process of reproducing and deseminating ideas. If the ideas are weak, there are limitations to what educated people can accomplish. Powerful ideas, used productively, have the potential to dramatically alter the future.

Today's young adults will need potent ideas to solve complex, world-wide problems. Exhaustion of petroleum and natural gas supplies will force the generation of alternative energy sources. Advancing technology, automation, new materials and techniques in building, and novel modes of transportation will create economic and social changes, affecting personal employment, health and leisure activities. Medical breakthroughs in disease prevention, artificial transplants and control of aging will prolong human life, thus increasing world population and requiring more effective land use and efficient food production. Gerald O'Neill, professor of physics at Princeton University, has projected that by 2018 space colonization will become a viable option for emigration. He further predicts, "By 2150, there could be more people living in space than on earth . . . Earth might serve mainly as a tourist attraction — a carefully preserved monument to man's origin."

The Greek philosopher, Plato, observed, "The direction in which education starts a man will determine his future life." I hope all of you will grasp the opportunity for education while you are students at Vacaville High School. As the Class of 1982 graduates, you face the challenge of thinking productively to enhance the quality of human life. The world of tomorrow awaits the impact of the ideas you acquire through education.

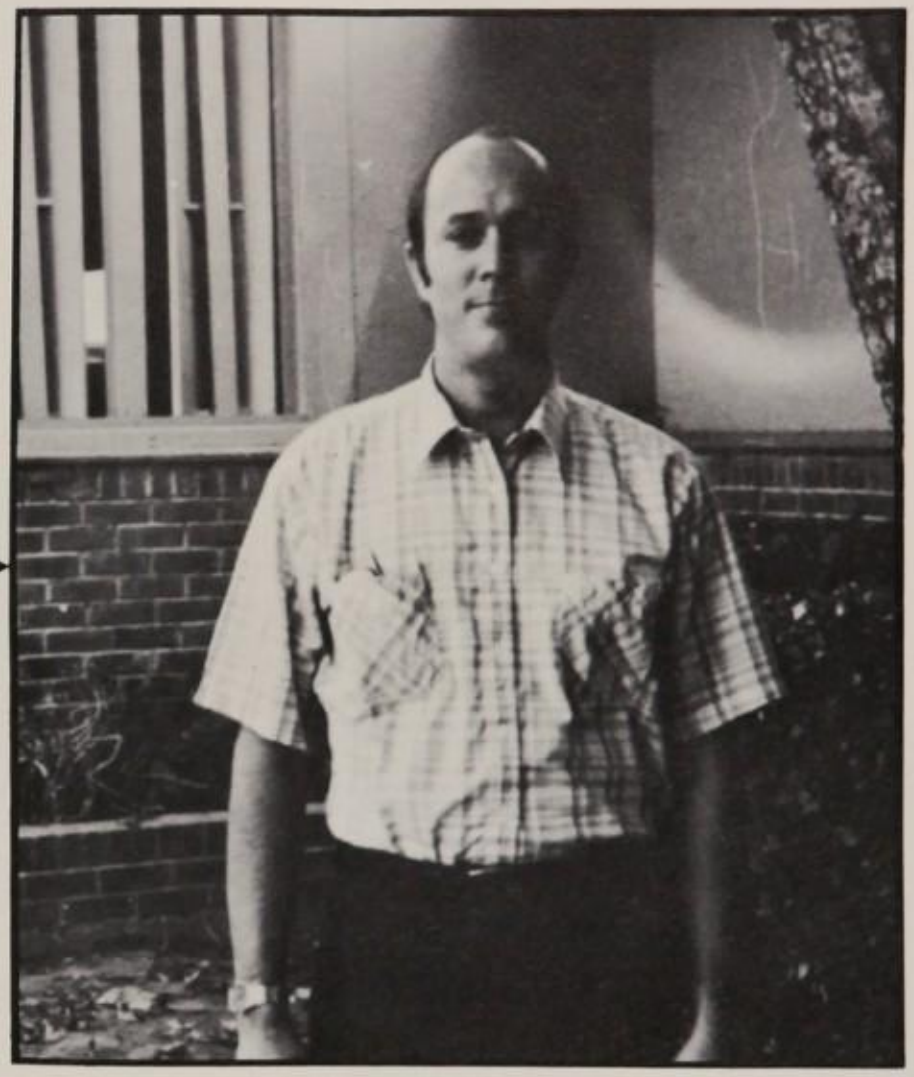
Mr. Doug Stark

Assistant Principal

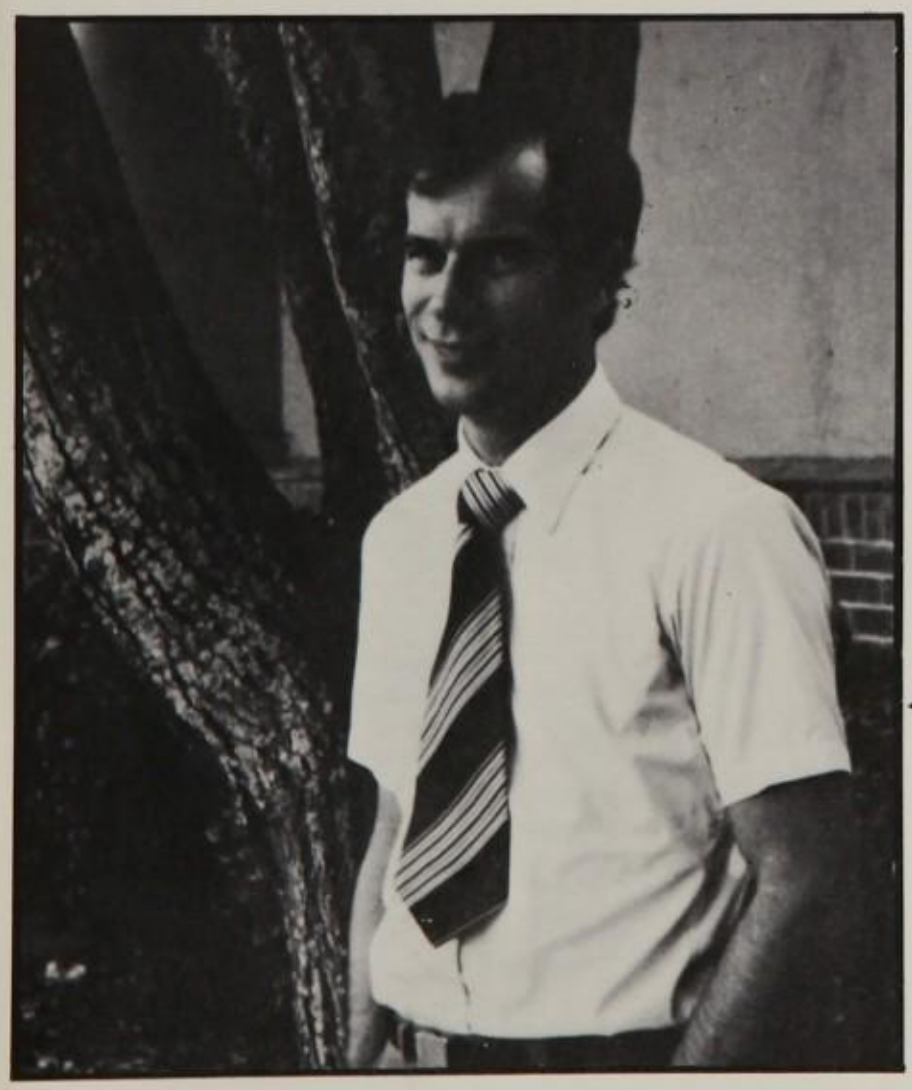
"At Vacaville High School we are going through a period where improvements are being stressed. Students are working harder and the faculty is trying more than ever to establish and maintain higher academic and behavioral standards. I'm proud to have a part in making Vaca High a better school."



Mr. Herb Hays

Assistant Principal

"The students at Vaca High are truly outstanding. They continue to excell as students and competitors. We, as a faculty, all take pride in their accomplishments and continually try our best to provide the instruction and guidance to allow them to do their best. Keep up the tradition Vaca High!"



Mr. Dan Wettstein

Dean of Students

"Some students I never met; others I saw much too often. I wish I could have met a lot less of the latter and many more of the former. For those who graduate, may the latter become like the former and earn continual success."

Mrs. Marianna Pokorny, Chairperson of the Fine Arts Department, choral director and teacher for the past 25 years at Vacaville High School, a truly dedicated leader and educator, has made an outstanding contribution to this school, community and state. Mrs. Pokorny obtained her BA degree in music from UCLA and an MA from USC. Prior to coming to Vaca High, she was a music supervisor and teacher in southern California for 10 years.

Her career at Vaca High began in 1956. She developed an outstanding choral music department, affording cultural opportunity for thousands of students. Her chorus, Madrigal Choir and Swing Choir have presented hundreds of performances. She was responsible for the "Paint Your Wagon" musical in 1963—the first of 20 major musicals in which she has been the musical director. Hundreds of her students have participated in festivals at the University of the Pacific and other music camps. Many of her students have been selected for the California State Honor Choir.

For 35 years of dedicated service, and for her cultural and educational contributions to thousands of young people, we honor Mrs. Marianna Pokorny.

In Memory Of

David Rose

It is never a good feeling to lose a friend, especially when he is taken suddenly. This was the case on Monday, August 17, when David Rose, an active community member and criminal justice teacher, died after a brief illness.

Mr. Rose served our community as a peace officer for eight years, a counselor for the Youth Service Bureau, and, during his last year at Vacaville High School, a Criminal Justice teacher and the advisor of the Ski Club. If you didn't see him at any of these places you could find him on any Friday night faithfully supporting our own Bulldogs and trying to maintain sportsmanship on and off the field.

We will miss David Rose as both a teacher and a friend.

ACTIVITIES

1981-82

The year's activities got off to a great start after everyone decided that Homecoming would be funeven without floats. On Friday of Homecoming Week, blushing senior Danielle Landaiche was crowned Queen during halftime of a victory over Alameda. As the end of 1981 approached, everyone anticipated Santa and Christmas. Many carnations were sent and lots of clubs had bake sales to raise money. Despite complaints, the Christmas Ball was held at the Community Center and a lot of people had a wonderful time.

In January, after the holidays were over, students came back to school with new clothes, new toys, and a new outlook toward school. Pocket stereos were the latest craze. Another new fad was sending a bouquet of balloons to a friend. During January the Black Student Unity gave a tribute to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. We had several bands come and perform for us in the Little Theater at lunch.

The end of the semester brought us something we never had before a BOMB! The finals schedule got messed up and second semester came a day late, but soon everyone forgot the whole incident. February produced basketball and Winter Festival. This year we had a Saint Valentines King and his court-thanks to the Pep Squad. During the week we had "Flood" day where everyone wore their shortest disaster prepared pants, and we had "Picket" day where students displayed their feelings about various subjects on signs. With March, as always, came the green of St. Patricks Day. A lot of strange people and flowers circulated the campus. Then after a long stressful work period in April, we were awarded a deserving vacation. The Easter Bunny came and went and we were back in school again- but this time the next vacation would be SUMMER! The next six weeks passed quickly-except for the seniors who were coming down with the highly communicable disease of Senioritis. The only known cure for this disease is total submersion in Lake Berryessa. Soon the year ended and the seniors graduated. Everyone else progressed in their climb up the ladder. Good year or bad year? The verdict was undecided.

A Tribute to Dr. King

On January 14 the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was celebrated at Vacaville High School. The Black Student Unity presented a 45 minute tribute to this great man. Under the direction of Ms. Jody Wara, the program consisted of songs, readings, and dedications which were all very well performed. Speakers included Mr. Steve Green, a teacher at Vaca High, Nina Hubbard, Derek Crutchfield, Tamela Alston and Carla Jones, all members of the BSU. The choir made a special appearance and solos were sung by Hope Williamson and Marc Perry.

The legend Dr. King left behind was one of strength and peace. He was a man who fought and died for what he believed. Hopefully in our generation we will be able to achieve what Dr. King tried to accomplish- Human rights and peace among all the people of the world.

The two words which best describe the student council this year are balance, and cooperation.

The members of student council represent a broad spectrum of student interests at Vacaville High School. Members of the council include varsity athletes, cheerleaders Drill Teamers, straight A scholars, partiers and a kaleidoscope of others. This large variety of students makes the council more able to represent the entire student body rather than just one special interest group or another. We do realize however that we don't do a perfect job of representing everyone, which is why we are always eager to listen to anyone with an idea of suggestion which might make Vaca High a better place to go to school.

The best thing, by far, about this years council is the way everyone works together to get things done. No one on this years council is afraid to get their hands dirty or to accept responsibility. There is none of the intra-council rivalry which has been evident on councils in past years and which is detrimental to getting things accomplished. Everyone gets along well and as a result all of our projects were very successful.

Although communications between the council and the student body were not as productive as we would have liked, the council and the administration communicated very well. This year has been a good one for the council.

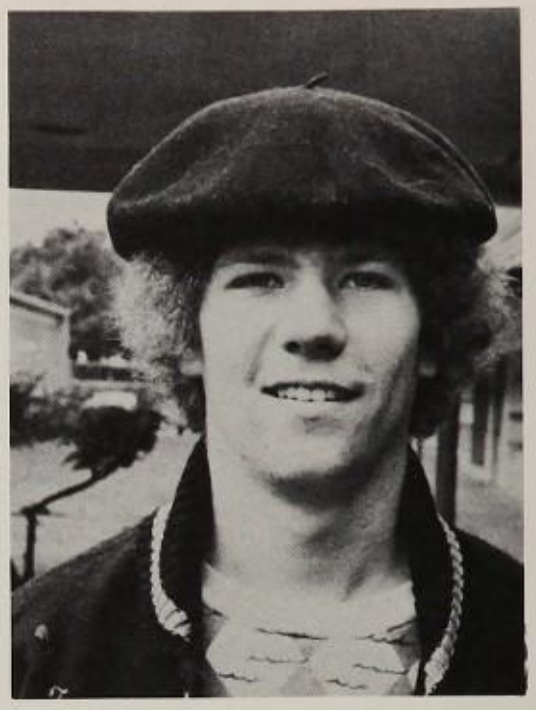
Before Robert Gordon came to Vaca High he lived and played soccer in a town south of London, England. Then Robert was exposed to Vaca High. He became the captain of the championship soccer team, was voted all-league and also supported a 4.0 grade point average. When asked what he thought of Vaca High Robert decided to take the 5th, but commented that the people and places he visited were truly comfortable.

"Compared to the U.S., Argentina is very much different" stated foreign exchange student Pablo Miranda. "School is easier, gas is cheaper, and there is much more emphasis on night life" Pablo pointed out. But he liked Vacaville and it's surroundings very much. Pablo noted that he would best remember students of Vaca High, Disneyland, and a different way of life. The people of Vaca High would like to wish Pablo the best of luck and warm wishes in his future life.



Born and raised on the outskirts of Copenhagen, Denmark, Tommy Jensen came to Vacaville last August and left later in June. During the school year he was a member of the International Club as well as the exchange programs. Tommy said that "the people of Vacaville and America were very friendly." He also stated that he wishes to be a pilot back in Denmark. Whatever field Tommy chooses, we are sure he'll be a success and wish him much luck along the way.

The Drama Club had a very successful year producing two plays, one in early December and one in March. Under the direction of Mrs. Edwards the years first play, "See How They Run," had the largest attendence and grossed the most money than any play in recent years.

"See How They Run" is a hilarious comedy set at a vicarage in England and concerns itself with a number of mistaken identities causing confusion and laughter to run rampant.

This year's second play, "Inherit the Wind" is based on the Scopes Monkey trial in which a science teacher was put on trial for teaching evolution. The story is also about the clash of two famous lawyers, Clarence Darrow and William Jennings Bryan.

The success of both plays was largely due to the work and dedication of all the students involved. Mounting any successful production involves many hours of character development, line memorization, movement blocking, costume planning, property collection and organization plus a myriad of other jobs.

What happens when the new superintendent of Sleep-Tite pajama factory, meets and falls in love with, a member of the union's grievance committee. The same committee that is trying to get him to give his workers a 7½ cent raise. Well it gives us a look at a light-hearted musical comedy based on the hit BROADWAY play PAJAMA GAME. Originally taken from a novel by Richard Bissell called 7½ Centist the play was a successful hit.

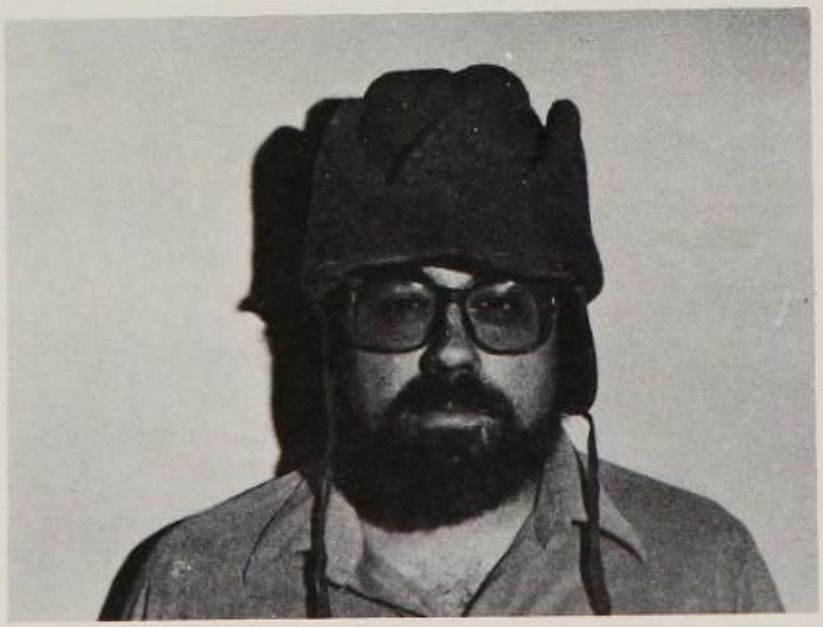
Ulatis Staff At Large!



The members of the Ulatis gang secretly made their way through the year watching, spying and collecting exclusive information for their "little white book." Under the direction of Earl "The Pearl" Swenerton, a man impersonating a faculty member, the gang terrorized the small province of Vacaville High School. Since the gang of the recent past had been executed, these new hoodlums were on the rampage.

Their chief hitman, Duane Ware, went about the school shooting everyone in sight. Claiming innocence to charges of character assassination, "shadey" participant Rob Finley faded from the limelight. Accused by the locals of unethical tactics of solicitation, business mogul, Jeanne "Bear" Caesar was forced to plead guilty by an obnoxious attorney. The escapading White sisters, proceeded about the campus forcing exclusive information from innocent students. Other members of the gang were cited for various misdemeanors. Finally, the gang was able to gather enough data to complete their "little white book."

As your life changes, our life changes

The only thing that is constant is change. This is particularly true for a young person just beginning a career. So, Farmers designed a life insurance plan called Alpha that perfectly meets the challenge of change.

Alpha provides a wide range of flexibility to accommodate marriage, children, retirement and changing income situations at a price you can afford. And if you haven't smoked in two years, I'll be happy to tell you about the non-smokers discount.

So call me today about Alpha life insurance and learn about Farmers fast, fair, friendly service.

Editor's Note

Putting together the 1982 Ulatis has been both joy and pain. There were moments during a few deadline periods when the pains outnumbered the joys, but all in all it was worth it. I'm sure we made our share of mistakes, but we tried our best and that's what counts. I hope everyone enjoys this copy of the Ulatis, it could not have been done without my super staff. Jeanne, Beckie, Rob, & Duane, my editors, are the best group of people anyone could have asked for. To the rest of the staff, Nora, Mary, Ellen, Michelle, Carren, Rhonda, Stewart, Scott, Matt, Roger, and Robert, thanks! I would especially like to thank Mrs. Grace Powell, and the rest of the administration for their support and cooperation. One more thank you. Mom and Dad I couldn't have made it without you.
